

House Resolution No.4357

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize Delos Seabaugh, a treasured resident of Daisy, Missouri, who commemorated the resplendent occasion of his One Hundredth Birthday on September 20, 2008, with a festive celebration held at New Salem United Methodist Church in Daisy; and

Whereas, Delos Seabaugh came into this world on September 20, 1908, as the tiny infant son born to proud and loving parents Vivian and Sarah Seabaugh, who welcomed him into their hearts as a precious gift from God; and

Whereas, on June 2, 1935, Delos embarked upon a new and exciting chapter in his life when he married his beloved Elva Friese, a kind and loving women with whom he enjoyed many years of wedded success and happiness until her passing from this world in 1985; and

Whereas, Delos was fortunate to find love once again with his marriage to Ruby Seabaugh in 1987, which lasted until her death in 2001; and

Whereas, a 1927 graduate of Jackson High School, Delos earned his teaching certificate and taught in a one-room schoolhouse in Critesville before working in the Chevy Motor Division in Michigan, attending business school in Indiana to learn bookkeeping and accounting, and working for his uncle for a dollar a day in 1932; and

Whereas, a stellar employee of Citizens Mutual Insurance Company for forty-one years who also owned an insurance agency and general store in Daisy from 1939 to 1956, Delos Seabaugh has been abundantly blessed with the love and admiration of a wonderful family whose members include his three children, Perry Don, Marge Green, and Dodie Eisenhower; and

Whereas, now one hundred years young, Delos Seabaugh faces the beginning of each day with renewed hope and happiness and continues to lead a good life, sharing his experiences and exciting stories of times gone by with those he holds most dear:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join in extending our most hearty and robust congratulations to Delos Seabaugh as he proudly celebrates one hundred years of achievement, and in wishing him much peace and prosperity as he continues his journey along life's path; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Delos Seabaugh, as a mark of our esteem for him.
